* Grants to Combat Violence Against Women are not authorized as a distinct category in VAWA. Rather, STOP Grants are authorized at $225 million and Transitional Housing is authorized as its own line item for $40 million. However, Congress traditionally appropriates an amount for Grants to Combat VAW and then deducts unrelated programs and earmarks from it, leaving the remainder for STOP grants. These deductions, including the separately authorized Transitional Housing program, reduce the funding available for STOP formula grants to states. The House budget moves the Safe Start program to the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) budget.

‡ This is a crucial source of funding for research on domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. These funds should be restored to FY '07 levels, but funded from another source rather than as a deduction from the STOP Grant program.

▣ The House budget moves these programs from the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) budget to the Office of Justice Programs (OJP) budget. These programs provide extremely valuable services and training, and should be funded out of OJP.

[°] FVPSA, the National Domestic Violence Hotline, and the Community Initiatives to Prevent Abuse (DELTA) are authorized through the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (FVPSA).

 Funding amounts for these programs were not available at the time of publishing.
